GLAD TIDINGS 3AM

“Satan’s First Sermon”

Lesson 14

“Thou Shalt Not Surely Die”

Get in touch with us

Phone
814-299-9199

Email
Gladtidings3am.gmail.com

Website
gladtidings3am.org

“How beautiful are the feet of them that bring glad tidings” Romans 10:15

“And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.” Genesis 3:4-6

Please go through each question carefully

01 Who created man in the beginning of the world?

Genesis 1:26,27 _____

02 Did God give everything for man’s happiness?

Genesis 1:28, 29 _____

03 What was the only prohibition God gave to man in the garden of Eden?

Genesis 2:16, 17 _____

04 What medium did Satan use in order to tempt Eve?

Genesis 3:1 _____

_____

05 Did Eve have a knowledge of God’s prohibition regarding the tree of life?

Genesis 3:2, 3 _____

06 What was the first lie told to the human race?

Genesis 3:4 _____

_____

_____

07 What did Eve think would be the result of eating the forbidden fruit?

Genesis 3:6

_____

“And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.” Genesis 3:4-6

Please go through each question carefully

08 What happened when Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit?

Genesis 3:7

09 Did Adam desire to be in the presence of God after sinning against Him?

Genesis 3:8

10 Is man naturally immortal?

1 Corinthians 15:53, 54

11 What happens to the person who remains living in sin?

Ezekiel 18:20

12 Does man have consciousness in death?

Ecclesiastes 9:5

13 Should children of God mingle themselves with those who “consult” the dead?

Deuteronomy 18:9-12

14 Did King Saul really consult the dead Samuel or was he decieved?

1 Samuel 28:14

"And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat." Genesis 3:4-6

Additional Reading

"Among the Babylonians the belief in the immortality of the soul (or spirit) was fundamental." {Babylonian Life and History, pg. 116}

"The Egyptians...were also the first people to put forward the doctrine of the immortality of the soul." {Herodotus, Book Two, pg. 123}

"Plato journeyed to Egypt where, from Pausanius we also gather that it was the Egyptians that Plato learned the mystery of the immortality of the soul." {Freemasonry and the Ancient Egyptians, pg. 143}

"The soul is neither born, nor does it ever die; nor having once existed, does it ever cease to be. The soul is without birth, eternal, immortal, and ageless. It is not destroyed when the body is destroyed." {The Bhagavad Gita, 2:20}

"Parable is that kind of allegory which consists of a continued narration of fictitious or accommodated events applied to the illustration of some important truth." {Bishop Robert Lowth, 1710-1787}

"Therefore it stands proved to a demonstration that the doctrine of the immortality of the soul is utterly subversive of the doctrine of the resurrection of the dead. But the resurrection of the dead is a Bible doctrine; it is the very truth of God. So then it is plain that the doctrine of the immortality of the soul is subversive of the truth of God, and is therefore false, deceptive, and destructive." {The Immortality of the Soul, Is it a Scriptural Doctrine?, pg. 7, 8}