"The Knights of Columbus, founded at New Haven, Connecticut, Febuary 2, 1882, by Rev. M.J. Mcgivney, curate of St. Mary's Church...had on January1, 1905 a total membership of 127,206 persons...they are now (1912) said to be over 300,000 strong ...and adroit feature of this organization, to which Roman Catholics only are eligible, is the initiative service of four degrees...they work in collusion with the Hierarchy, and are heart and soul in politics. This fact is well known to political machines and non-Catholic politicians, who candidates must receive the approval of Rome and the Knights before they dare nominate them for either dog pound or presidency. The knights of Columbus'... principal business is politics, aye, Jesuitical politics..." {Romanism: A Menace to the Nation, pg. 154, 157. 1912}

"And as in worship, so in doctrine, thus truly setting up an image of old Popery in a Protestant reformed way. For though they, with an impudent forehead, renounces the Pope's character and the name of Papists, yet with as much impudence do they bring in an image of Popish worship and ceremonies. Some receive his mark or character; others his name only; others the number of his name: but so as those who will not receive or submit to one of these, more or less, during the time, that is allotted to him to reign, may not 'buy or sell'. {The Works of Thomas Goodwin, Vol. III, pg., 68, 70, 71}
