THE VOICE OF THANKSGIVING

Official Newsletter of Glad Tidings 3AM

Welcome!

We thank you for taking the time to read through our Newsletter, “The Voice of Thanksgiving”. It is our continued desire that through the power of the pen, we can help to disseminate the present truth for this time, so needed in our world today. In this issue you will be given a host of topics ranging from, current events, health and wellness, family life etc., with a table of contents located to right of this paragraph. The disciplines of reading, study, and meditation are areas of development and overall education that have been systematically weaned from the collective consciousness, as being aspects of human life unneeded for this new epoch of modernity. Especially as it relates to the mindset of the 21st Century Christian, actual spiritual development, with its attendant intellectual cultivation, are now seen as being unimportant. “Relationship”, “worship”, or other frequently used Christian buzzwords are now deified to the exclusion of proper principles which leads to a genuinely fulfilling walk with Christ. It is a sad fact to lament that this state of affairs to a great degree dominates the religious landscape within Christendom and has unfortunately led to many erros of faith and practice, with even the most sincere of believers.....Continued on page 2

Welcome Continued....

When the whole world is being psychologically conditioned to rely upon the thought process and reasoning of men in positions of arbitrary authority, it is of paramount importance that those who desire freedom, both practically and spiritually, get back to the rudiments of piety, intelligence and studiousness. Here at Glad Tidings 3AM, we pray that this newsletter's publication will be as a means of once again helping to encourage and cultivate that love of spiritual evolution and growth which leads us to pray, study, and meditate, filling our hearts and minds with the things of God!

FAMILY CORNER: SET THINE HOUSE IN ORDER

By ERIKA TUCKER

"If ever there was a time when every house should be a house of prayer, it is now. And yet, in this time of fearful peril, some who profess to be Christians have no family worship." {7 Testimonies, pg. 42.2}

Welcome back family, we've entered into a new year and have witnessed much turmoil in the world but amidst the darkness and confusion, what is God's instruction to His people? Set thine house in order! Let's take a look at king Hezekiah, we recognize that he is in a sick condition even unto death. Can we not say as well that many of us are in a sick condition as a church and family. Many times, when we have general sickness, we struggle to understand God's voice and tend to pray less. Whether due to pain, congestion, fatigue, or dizziness; all of these things tend to cloud the mind while we are seeking to recover. But in this instance, Hezekiah is told that he is going to die and not live and his human nature kicks into overdrive as he is standing at death's door. Hezekiah immediately prays and cries out to the Lord, petitioning Him to consider his walk with God and his perfect heart. Hezekiah's petition was granted and fifteen additional years were extended to him. This experience of Hezekiah offers much instruction for us living here in these last days of earth's history, as we approach a prophetic time of life and death. My friend, may we set our houses in order for we know there is going to be a time of trouble such as never was. Daniel 12:1 And Death would be a welcomed escape than to be unprepared for this huge ordeal, as was in the future case of Hezekiah. Continued on Page 5.....

FAMILY CORNER: SET THINE HOUSE IN ORDER, CONTINUED.....

Let us pray and seek the Lord that our homes may be a place this side of Heaven, where angels will delight to abide with us at our dinning tables.

Challenge: Create an activity that involves your family having intentional table conversations that helps you to learn more of Christ and of one another (make sure they are pleasant) and ways to cultivate gratitude and praise. Example: Choose a Bible story for discussion and talk of the lessons to be learned, that can be practically applied to the daily life. In addition, everyone finds something they appreciate about a member of the family or an area in the family member's life in which they were struggling, but have been gaining the victory.

Email with results or ideas of the activities you have tried. We'll put testimonials in our future newsletters.

The Great Societal Pivot

by SAMUEL TUCKER

The great mass of the general public has now become acutely aware of the dark reality concerning the wicked forces at play and in control of the enormous power structures governing this planet. The recent release of over 3 million pages of documents relating to Jefferey Epstein and his associates sheds light on an ancient Biblical concept enunciated by the apostle Paul, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." Ephesians 6:12 For untold generations, in this country, the U.S., and around the world, the ruling elite have to a very great degree, been able to hide their abominably wicked practices from the sight of men, whom they call "Goyim". This dark veil of secrecy has allowed Satan and his loyal subjects to prosper to such a height, that open exposure now calls forth little response from society at large. The grim, insanely shocking, and debauched details of the file release, are so beyond the pale of human normality, that for the longest while, most considered these revelations wild and unsubstantiated speculations, concocted by fringe "conspiracy theorists", a term now understood to have been coined by the CIA during the pandemonium of the JFK assassination. I will not take this space to spell out in explicit detail some of the demonic activity practiced by these demonically possessed individuals but in short, every abandoned practice associated with the worship of the god BAAL and his mistress ASTORETH, as described in the Sacred Writings when relating Solomon's apostacy, was contained in those files. Child sacrifice or abortion, fornication and adultery parties, bestiality, homosexuality, etc., its all in there. For many, this was either a democrat or republican problem, which degraded the enormity of these revelations to mere "political infighting". If you dear reader are still entrapped by the religion of politics, then I pray sincerely, that you wake up from your blindness, that you be not overtaken by the flood of deception soon to take this world captive. And for those who say, "well my favorite politician, celebrity, or athlete, was not named in the files", please stop before your shame be not taken away. While it is true that not every person in a position of fame and power is compromised by Satanic influence, but for the vast majority, to reach certain thresholds of influence, a very high price MUST be paid, which usually involves the entire selling of one's integrity!

From the perspective of the Christian, especially those who profess the remnant faith of Revelation 14:6-12, it should be with deep solemnity and earnestness that these Epstein revelations hit the mind. Many, even of the world, will look at these files with horror and dismay, swearing to high Heaven that they are disgusted and condemn with out reserve what they have witnessed. But the Bible declares, that without the abiding grace of God, the "common man" would be just as depraved as the sycophants and elite psychopaths he condemns on social media. How often do we now read in the daily press of crimes committed by the "common man", of so revolting a nature that one finds it hard to imagine that humanity can steep to such depths of depravity....Continued on Page 8

“Cannibalism, Dr. Suffray explains, “has existed as an institution among all peoples, in India, Africa, Australia, the Americas and Polynesia. Ancient historians record the practice of the Scythians, the Scandinavians, the Celts and the Bretons. In Caesar’s times, the Viscons were still consuming human flesh”

This state of affairs, as aforementioned, should call forth a holy zeal, a righteous flame ignited in the breast, that all professing the name of Jesus will heartily engage in work for the Master. Souls are perishing in the filth of their sins, both of great magnitude and small, and Heaven has so few who feel a burden for their salvation. The gospel commission is a solemn call to all Christians, for everyone nigh and afar off is to hear Christ's clarion call to repentance. From men and women in high authority openly serving Satan, as revealed in the "Epstein" files, to the common sinner who trods the street, all must know that Christ has the power to deliver them from the bondage of Satan's snare, that God's love is more to be prized than Satan's hatred for humanity!

The revelation of these Files should be a clear indication to all, from the pious Christian to the reckless transgressor, that God is awakening the social consciousness, enlightening man's understanding, that he or she may clearly see sin for what it is and a proper spiritual decision be made regarding one's eternal destiny. While Satan is flaunting his control of humanity, the Divine Benefactor is soon to reveal his loving power among the sons of men, and this light will shine brightest amidst the darkness of revived heathenism. "Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising." Isaiah 60:1-3

"The masses have never thirsted after truth. They turn aside from evidence that is not to their taste, preferring to deify error, if error seduce them. Whoever can supply them with illusions is easily their master; whoever attempts to destroy their illusions is always their victim."

GUSTAVE LE BON

Reader, please surrender thy will to Christ, Satan is playing the game of life for every soul and unless the heart is fully yielded to Him, only Heaven knows the depths of wickedness to which a man may sink without the grace of God. The common man may not find himself named in the "Files" but every man's name is written either in the Book of Life or the Book of Death in Heaven. May our names be entered and remain in the Lamb's book!

"And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world."

REVELATION 13:8

The Presidential Campaign and Apostacy from National Principles: Part 2

BY IKEMBA BALOGU

Now that we understand the two great principles of the United States, namely Protestantism and Republicanism, we are prepared to give a historical sketch of the national apostasy of the United States of America (USA) from both of these principles, which is clearly foretold in the prophecies of Daniel and the Revelation.

National apostasy is confirmed in the Scriptures related to this nation in Rev. 13:11-18. The beast, which symbolizes the USA, has "two horns like a lamb" but speaks "as a dragon" (v. 11). Despite its lamblike appearance, it demands that people create "an image to the beast," that is, to "the first beast" (v. 12-14), as outlined in verses 1-10. Those who refuse to worship "the first beast" or accept its mark, will face loss of all rights and even death, clearly signaling national apostasy.

This "first beast" represents the papacy, which is only a union of church and state. When the papacy was originally formed by a union of church and state, the church was an apostate church and the state was an apostate state. And this was essentialin order for a union of church and state to take place.

Now, the "two horns" of the second beast signifies the two great principles of the USA—Protestantism and republicanism—both of which are fundamentally opposed to a union of church and state. Thus, in order for the people of the USA to create "an image" to the papacy, there must be an apostasy from the principles of Protestantism and Republicanism. In other words, apostate Protestantism and apostate Republicanism are essential to the union of church and state, Continued on Page 11.....

"And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon."

which would be “an image” to the papacy, even the papacy again.

For the “image to the beast” is simply the image to the papacy, “the first beast,” and when the papacy was originally formed by a union of church and state, the church was an apostate church and the state was an apostate state. As an illustration of an apostate state, we have the first republic ever in world history, to which the USA is only the second. That first republic was Rome. Before it became an empire, the people of Rome, having cast off all kings and kingship, was a republic. That is to say, it was governed by “the senate and the people of Rome” and it was entirely by this Roman republic that its expansion by conquest made it an empire. This apostasy from the principle of Republicanism to Imperialism, from a “government of the people” to empire, led to an apostate state.

Accordingly, in the prophecies of Daniel, we may see just how the Roman Republic’s apostasy from the principle of Republicanism took place and in that, became an apostate state.

In Daniel 7, we are presented with a prophecy of “four beasts” which “came up from the sea, diverse one from another” (Dan. 7:3). Furthermore, we are told that a “beast,” in prophecy, signifies a “kingdom” or nation (read verses 17, 23). In Dan. 7:1-7, these four kingdoms are none other than Babylon, Medo-Persia, Grecia, and Rome. In verse 7, we read that Rome “was diverse from all the beasts [or kingdoms] before it.” But how was it diverse from all the kingdoms before it? Let us see now.

“In Constantine the new paganism met its ideal, and the New Platonism—the apostate, paganized, sun-worshiping form of Christianity..The epoch thus formed was the epoch of the papacy; and the new religion thus created was the PAPAL RELIGION.”

ALANZO T. JONES

"All of the other previous kingdoms—Babylon, Medo-Persia, and Grecia—were monarchies. Rome, having cast off the old governmental practice of monarchy, became the first ever republic in world history. But "the senate and the people of Rome," while recognizing their own capacity to govern themselves, refused to recognize the capability of other peoples to govern themselves, thus it was while Rome was a republic that "it" in the spirit of conquest and imperialism "devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue [remainder] with the feet of it" (v. 7). And so, in Dan. 8:24, 25, we are told just how the Roman Republic while it was a republic would in the spirit of conquest and imperialism become an empire; for it is written that "his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power," that "through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand," and "by peace shall destroy many."

One historian declared the following concerning the fulfillment of this particular prophecy:

"By the history, we showed that Rome, being a republic, a government of the people, made high pretentions to liberty, and to the love of liberty for the sake of liberty; that for this reason Rome pretended to love and desire liberty for other peoples; that the little states of Greece were struggling against monarchies, that they might themselves be free, and be republics. Solely from love of liberty for the sake only of liberty, and for the sake of humanity, Rome sent her armies and navies across seas to fight the battles and win the causes of those other peoples, only to set them free from oppressive powers, to enjoy the blessings of liberty, of which Rome was the conservator in the world. "

And then when the battles were fought, the victories won, and the peoples delivered, those peoples WERE NOT FREE. They were more bound and more hopeless than ever because of Rome's greater power than that of the former oppressors. And today, no man can intelligibly read that history of the Republic of Rome before any audience in the United States, without that audience seeing the Republic of the United States perfectly outlined up to date."—Alonzo Trevier Jones, "National Apostasy," Advent Review & Sabbath Herald, May 23, 1899.

How relevant today was this summary of the apostasy of the Roman Republic from the principle of Republicanism! And how reminiscent is it of the last 125 years of this American Republic's apostasy from the principle of Republicanism! TO BE CONTINUED....
